GOD'S PLAN OF SALVATION

Hear the Gospel (Rm 10:17) - Jesus, the Son of God was born of a virgin birth, lived a sinless life, died on a cross to bear sin's penalty, was resurrected and is now Lord over all, and through His death and life man can be eternally saved through faith in Him.

Believe the Gospel (Jn 3:16; Heb. 11:6; Mk 16:16)
Trust in God's promise to save you through Jesus.

Confess Jesus as Lord (Rm10:9-10; Acts 8:37)
An outward expression of your inward faith.

Repent (Acts 2:38,3:19,17:30;Titus 2:11-12)
Turn from a life of sin to living a life for God's glory.

Be Baptized (immersion in water- Acts 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21) - The moment your sins will be washed away. At this moment you will be united with Christ, and raised up with Him to walk in newness of life. Then, God adds you to the church (Acts 2:41,47), which is the called out body of Christ - the SAVED.

Remain Faithful (Rev. 2:10; Hebrews 10:23)
Continue to be faithful at any cost and the promise of heaven is sure.

KEEP YOUR FORK

By Mike Riley

There was a woman who had been diagnosed with a terminal illness and had been given three months to live. As she was getting her things “in order” (cf. 2 Kings 20:1), she contacted her preacher and asked him if he would come to her house to discuss certain aspects of her final wishes. She told him which songs she wanted sung at the service, what scriptures she would like read and what clothing she wanted to be buried in. The woman also requested to be buried with her favorite Bible. Everything was in order and the preacher was preparing to leave, when the woman suddenly remembered something very important. “There’s one more thing”, she said excitedly. “What’s that?” came the preacher’s reply.

She told him, “This is something very important, I want to be buried with a fork in my right hand”.

The preacher stood looking at the woman not knowing quite what to say. “That surprises you, doesn’t it?”, the woman asked. “Well, to be honest I’m puzzled by the request,” said the preacher. The woman explained, “In all my years of attending church potluck dinners, I always remember that when the dishes of the main course were being cleared, someone would inevitably lean over and say, “Keep your fork”. It was my favorite part of the dinner because I knew that something “better” was coming . . . like velvety chocolate cake or deep dish apple pie – something wonderful, and with substance! So, I just want people to see me there in that casket with a fork in my hand and I want them to wonder, “What’s with the fork?” Then I want you to tell them, “Keep your fork – the best is yet to come”. The preacher’s eyes welled up with...

BIRTHDAYS & ANNIVERSARIES

...tears of joy as he hugged the woman good-bye. He knew this would be one of the last times he would see her before her death, but he also knew that the woman had a better grasp of heaven than maybe he did because she knew that something “better” was coming. At the funeral, the woman’s many friends were walking by her casket and they saw the pretty dress she was wearing, her favorite Bible and the fork placed in her right hand. Over and over, the preacher heard the question, “what’s with the fork?” And over and over he simply smiled. As he spoke the eulogy, the preacher told those in attendance of the conversation he had with the woman shortly before she died. He also told them how he could not stop thinking about the fork and said they probably would not be able to stop thinking about it either. He was right. So, the next time you reach down for your fork, let it remind you, oh so gently, that spiritually speaking, the “best” is yet to come (Hebrews 11:16; Hebrews 13:14; cf. Ephesians 2:6; Colossians 3:1; Philippians 3:20; 1 Peter 1:4).
